

Mathew Suen

An Education

- 2010 – 2013 Yale University (M.Arch.)
New Haven, Conn.
- Advanced studios included Heneghan/Peng Architects and MAB Development.
- 2006 – 2010 University of Toronto (Honours B.A.)
Toronto, Ont.
- Graduated with High Distinction with majors in Architectural Design and Architectural Theory, History, and Criticism with a minor in Art History.

Experience (On Record)

- Spring 2015 – Present Beyer Blinder Belle
New York, N.Y.
- Worked in urban design including a masterplan for downtown Far Rockaway.
- Winter 2013 – Spring 2015 WXY
New York, N.Y.
- Major projects included Rebuild by Design and The QueensWay.
- Winter 2013 Freelance
New York, N.Y.
- Developed schemes for Brooklyn based bakery, Baked, for two of their expansion stores into Manhattan with Alex Meyers.
 - Produced renderings for ICRAVE, notably for a concept restaurant in Las Vegas competition which won the contract.
- Summer – Fall 2013 Rogers Partners
New York, N.Y.
- Developed web identity for the new firm.
 - Produced physical and 3D models as well as drawings and diagrams for an apartment complex, a park, and a high rise.

Online
<http://mathewsuen.com>

Mobile
203 691 0397

E-mail
m@mathewsuen.com

Awards & Commendations

- James Gamble Rogers Fellow for an outstanding academic record (Yale University, 2012).
- Alexander Rutherford Scholarship valued at $2500 CAD (Gov't. of Alberta, 2006).
- Dean's List Scholar designation from the University of Toronto for every term.

Skills & Qualities

- Bilingual speaker in English and Cantonese.
- Intuitive with software and fast at adapting to new environments.
- Understands computer programming logic including Javascript and Python in addition to web development languages.
- Quick to learn new techniques when needed to meet specific specifications or intentions.

Technical Proficiency

